Announcement: XXXVII IAVMICON-2026

Greetings from the IAVMI Secretariat!

We are delighted to inform you that the XXXVII Annual Convention-cum-National Conference of the Indian Association of Veterinary Microbiologists, Immunologists, and Specialists in Infectious Diseases (IAVMI) has been rescheduled at Krantisinh Nana Patil College of Veterinary Science, Shirwal, District Satara, Maharashtra, on 26th and 27th February, 2026 on “Strengthening Animal vis-à-vis Human Health for Addressing Challenges in the 21st Century.”

This conference will serve as a significant platform for scientists, researchers, students, policymakers, industry professionals, and stakeholders from the fields of animal health, public health, microbiology, and related disciplines to come together and engage in meaningful scientific exchange. Participants will have the opportunity to present their research findings, share innovative ideas, and collaborate on interdisciplinary approaches to tackle the pressing challenges at the intersection of animal and human health.

For further information and queries, you may contact the Organizing Secretary of the XXXVII IAVMICON -2026 in the following address:

Dr. Dushyant Muglikar

Professor &amp; Head, Department of Veterinary Microbiology
